

Tropical Lifting Problems

Madhusudan Manjunath
Department of Mathematics, UC Berkeley

We start with a general introduction to tropical algebraic geometry. In particular, we introduce the tropical lifting problem and discuss recent progress. Tropical analogues of graph curves play an important role in this study. This talk will be accessible to the general mathematical audience.