

Edge ideals - A bridge between combinatorics and commutative algebra

Dr. A. V. Jayanthan
(Department of Mathematics, IIT Madras)

Given a finite simple graph G , one associates an ideal in a polynomial ring over a field. Recently there have been a lot of research on connecting the combinatorial properties of the graphs to the algebraic properties of the corresponding ideal. I will give a survey talk in this direction.