In this paper we study the problems associated with the fishermen community using fuzzy linguistic cognitive maps model. We have made a pilot survey from 20 families living near Mahabalipuram in Tamilnadu. This study is innovative and for the first time such study has been carried using the new fuzzy linguistic cognitive maps model.