A unique problem pertaining to Asian countries is “Child marriage”. The social evil of this problem is very large for more than half of the population is affected by this. Here we study the “Child marriage” practiced in India and its evil impact on society. However it is legally wrong to conduct child marriages. We analyse this social problem using Fuzzy Relational Maps (FRMs).