The present educational model starting from school to college is in chaos, for this generation is unaware of moral/ethical values and lacks the strength to face the reality of life leading to suicide or murder. They lack tolerance, endurance and take hasty steps in life leading to loss of life which is irreversible.

We use new fuzzy linguistic models to study this problem. Fuzzy linguistic models happen to be a recently developed model which can analyse many social problems. The advantage of using this model is that the solution also is not in numbers but in linguistic terms.
